B. Proclamation – Native American Heritage Month

Mayor McGreevy read the proclamation into the record as follows:

PROCLAMATION - RECOGNIZING NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

WHEREAS, during Native American Heritage Month, The Borough of Neptune City recognizes and honors the first people to call this region, state, and nation home, while also committing to the personal, collective and institutional work we must continue to embrace as we create a community that respects, values and uplifts Native peoples.

WHEREAS, Native American Heritage Month is observed by acknowledging the contributions of Native Americans long before the formation of the United States, which we recognize as inextricably woven into the history of this country;

WHEREAS, the history and culture of our great nation have been significantly influenced by the rich tapestry of Native Americans and indigenous peoples; and

WHEREAS, the contributions of Native Americans have enhanced the freedom, prosperity and greatness of America today; and

WHEREAS, we are aware of the historical importance of local and national tribes and the way Native Americans continue to enrich our heritage and add to all aspects of our society by sharing their customs and traditions; and

WHEREAS, we honor our native people, their ancestral homes, their religion, and recognize their contributions historically, today, and in the future of our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rachel McGreevy, Mayor of the Borough of Neptune City, along with the Governing Body, do hereby proclaim the month of November as Native American Heritage Month in the Borough of Neptune City, a time to celebrate the rich cultures of indigenous people, honor their sacrifices, acknowledge the unique challenges Native Americans face, historically and present, and recognize their continued significance in our community.

9. MAYOR'S REPORT - Mayor Rachel McGreevy

Mayor McGreevy reported Neptune City was selected to receive funding from NJDOT Municipal Fiscal Aid grant program for Ridge Avenue and Ridge Terrace. The funds come from the transportation trust fund which comes from the local gas tax. Mayor McGreevy thanked the engineer and everyone on the team for applying for the grant. A statewide drought warning remains in effect despite the recent rain due to the significant rainfall deficit over the past few months. Voluntary water conservation is encouraged for all residents, Mayor McGreevy shared tips for water conservation at home. Mayor McGreevy thanked the team, including the Neptune City OEM, Neptune City Police Department, Fire Department and JCP&L who worked on a downed power line on November 13 which caused a power outage and a brush fire. Mayor McGreevy shared Redevelopment updates regarding the former Walsifer lot, East Coast Ice and East Coast Cannabis – Ship Wreck'd. The Borough was represented by multiple departments who attended the Monmouth County Shared Services Summit. Mayor McGreevy provided an update from the Historical Committee, sharing accomplishments completed throughout the year and future plans and projects. Mayor McGreevy noted the Friendsgiving held Saturday was wonderful and a great effort lead by C/Dellett and C/Farley and thanked local musician Joe Riccardello. The Ladies Auxiliary had a successful event with the fire truck on Saturday. The Tree Lighting will be December 5 at 6pm and the Children's Party at the Community Center on Saturday the 7th at 10. Mayor McGreevy wished all a Happy Thanksgiving.

10. COUNCIL REPORTS

A. COUNCIL PRESIDENT DANIELLE PAPPAS, ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Council President Pappas shared the Police Department will be hosting a Toys for Tots Drive from December 1 to December 14. The event will close at the empty lot on 35 and 4th from 9am -2pm on December 14. Coffee with a Cop will be December 3 from 11am – 1pm at 7/11.

E. COUNCILMEMBER PAMELA RENEE, BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

C/Renee reported that the Buildings and Grounds Committee met last week to finalize plans for Phase 2 at Adams Field. C/Renee thanked Local 50 PBA for their successful food drive last week. C/Renee shared information from the League of Municipalities Conference. C/Renee reported the Green Team met tonight and will meet again on December 9 at 5:30. C/Renee reported the Borough Recycling Coordinator noted the Borough will be donating all film collected by the Borough to the Girl Scouts who will donate back a bench to the Borough once they collect 1,000 pounds of plastic. Leaf collection will end the week of December 15; brush pick up ended today.

C/Pappas presented a report on behalf of C/Farley who gave a sincere thanks to all those who donated their time and food to make Friendsgiving a success. The tree lighting will be on December 5 and the Children's Christmas Party on December 7.

F. COUNCILMEMBER BRIAN THOMAS, EMERGENCY SERVICES

C/Thomas shared a reminder from C/Dellett that the Board of Recreation is still accepting sponsors for the Rec Basketball program. The form is available on the Board of Recreation Facebook page; applications to sign up are still available. C/Thomas thanked the Fire Department and Ladies Auxiliary for the photo shoot in December. Later in December the long-awaited Fire Truck will be making its way to New Jersey, with the vehicle ready to go for the first of the year. C/Thomas thanked Mayor McGreevy for the proclamation honoring Native American History Month.

Mayor McGreevy shared the assessment post cards that were mailed to residents. Mayor McGreevy explained the valuations went up but is hopeful the rate will decline. Residents who feel the new valuation is incorrect can appeal until January 15, 2025. The Borough will be sharing an announcement for those wishing to serve the community as a volunteer on a committee.

11. PUBLIC COMMENTS ON AGENDA ITEMS

The meeting was open to the public on agenda items.

Mr. Christopher Devlin of the Neptune City PBA thanked Mayor McGreevy and Councilmember Kocsis for working toward an agreement, and looks forward to working to a long term contract next year. Mayor McGreevy thanked C/Kocsis and C/Thomas for their efforts as well as the Police Department, noting that the best part of Neptune City is the people.

Mr. Ted Wardell asked about the purpose of the ordinance. Mayor McGreevy confirmed he was asking about ad hoc committees; then explained that when an ordinance was being formed for a Grant Committee it was determined there was a deficiency in the Code regarding committees. Administrator Jardine further explained. Mayor McGreevy noted any ad hoc committee would have to be approved by the Governing Body.

ORDINANCE 2024-13
BOROUGH OF NEPTUNE CITY, COUNTY OF MONMOUTH
ORDINANCE CREATING ARTICLE 1, CHAPTER 9 STANDING COMMITTEES AND AD HOC COMMITTEES

§ 9-1 Standing Committees; Ad Hoc Committees

A. The Council sets all policy and provides the resources to implement the policy. This is accomplished with the input and advice of standing reference and special committees, which shall be appointed by the Mayor at the commencement of each annual meeting. The members thereof shall service for the entire year, unless otherwise ordered.
B. The standing committees shall consist of three (3) Council members appointed by the Mayor, one of which shall be designated as chairperson or liaison. The Mayor shall also be an ex-officio member of all standing committees.
C. All standing committees shall act as a liaison between the governing body and the agencies assigned to such committees. No committee member shall be removed from his/her committee except for good cause.
D. The Mayor shall, at the yearly reorganization meeting, appoint standing committees to provide oversight and recommendations to the Council. The standing committees are as follows: (i) Administration and Justice; (ii) Special Services; (iii) Community Relations; (iv) Administration and Finance; (v) Buildings and Grounds; and (vi) Emergency Services.
E. The standing committees may:
    (1) Review and suggest policy.
    (2) At the Council's request, investigate, study and make recommendations to the Council on issues or questions brought forward by the Mayor, Council, and/or Administrator.
    (3) Make recommendations involving financial matters, including financial limits or thresholds.
    (4) Recommend short- or long-term planning goals.
    (5) Aid in the development, production, and public dissemination of material relating to the Borough and its activities.
    (6) Provide liaison to outside organizations.
    (7) Will perform all statutory requirements.
F. The Mayor may, at any time, appoint special purpose ad hoc committees and determine the membership thereof, which may include the Mayor, and/or certain Councilmembers, and/or members of the public.
G. Ad hoc committees shall serve for a period of not more than one calendar year.

§ 9-2 Duties of the Committees; Coordination with Borough Administrator

A. Committees of the Council shall review any matter or question referred to it by the Mayor and Council and report to the Council for its consideration on any such matter or question, with or without recommendations.
B. Committees shall perform such other duties as may be necessary in the exercise of its responsibilities as the Mayor and Council may direct.
C. All committee appointments by the Mayor shall be pursuant to this article, except those appointments provided by state statutes.
D. Each standing committee shall meet at such time and place as its chairperson shall designate; provided, however, that such meetings comply with law and that no such meeting shall be scheduled by the chairperson in conflict with the schedule established by the Mayor for a day and time when the Council is in session.
E. If required by the governing body, the chairperson of each standing committee shall cause to report to the Mayor and Council no later than the next regular meeting of the Mayor and Council next following the committee meeting, a summary report of such meeting, indicating:
    (1) Date of the meeting.
    (2) The presence or absence of each of the members.
    (3) The opinion of each member present on the motions with respect to the matters or questions considered.
F. The chairperson of a standing committee shall cause notice to be given to the Borough Administrator whenever any matter or question of expending money is considered or referred to such standing committee. The Borough Administrator may furnish the standing committee or the Mayor and Council with a report stating the views of the Administrator with respect to the fiscal implication of such matter or question.
